2009 Ryder Shiraz

Full bodied and ready to drink now! Using fruit from the St Clare Vineyard, this Shiraz spent 15 months in a combination of French and American Oaks hogsheads. The result is a generous wine with flavours of sweet fruit, vanilla and spice with well integrated oak.

4 STARS, The Melbourne Age 'Epicure' Tuesday 19th October 2010

"Reillys Clare Valley winery is a name to look for if you want wines of real character at very reasonable prices. The Ryder 2009 Shiraz has a syrupy blackberry nose with seasonings of spice and sweet oak and an almost amarone-like, nutty, oxidative complexity. If you're a big red fan on a budget, go for it; it's full bodied, with generous jammy flavour and a lingering, toasty finish. Drink over the next three years with lasagne or braised beef."
